COMPUTACENTER ANNOUNCES ACQUISITION OF BUSINESS IT SOURCE, ONE OF THE FASTEST GROWING VARS IN UNITED STATES

Computacenter has acquired one of the fastest-growing Value-Added Resellers in the United States, Business IT Source ("BITS"). BITS employs around 100 people and has a HQ and Integration Center in Buffalo Grove, Illinois, approx, 45 mins from downtown Chicago. BITS reported revenue in 2021 of approx. USD 245m with EBIT of approx. USD 8.9m.

The existing BITS leadership team will stay to run the business as a separate operating unit within Computacenter United States to maximise the growth opportunity. The business and the team will be fully integrated into Computacenter's North American operations over time.

"Our US business continues to grow organically but we will take additional opportunities to improve our positioning. BITS gives us a much stronger presence in the Midwest of the United States and brings some great people, customers and leadership to our business. The Buffalo Grove Integration Center will allow us to serve more of our Midwest regional customers locally over time, helping us to meet our sustainability goals. I am confident that the BITS leadership will seize the opportunity to continue their current growth momentum." said Mike Norris, Computacenter Group CEO.

"We are excited to become part of the Computacenter family. This gives us the opportunity to provide a much broader range of capabilities to our customers and growth opportunities for our people. Operating as a separate business unit will allow us to continue our personalized service while leveraging Computacenter's capabilities to best serve customers and associates." said Bob Fraenheim, CEO & Co-Founder of BITS.

About Computacenter
