Directorate Change

Computacenter plc ("Computacenter" or the "Company"), a leading independent technology and services provider, announces that Christian Jehle has stepped down from his role as the Group's Chief Financial Officer and as an Executive Director of the Board, by mutual agreement with the Company, and with immediate effect.

Christian will remain a Computacenter employee until 31 December 2024, in order to facilitate a smooth transition and handover of his responsibilities. Following Christian's departure and ahead of any future appointment, his responsibilities will be fulfilled by the broader finance team in conjunction with the existing executive management team. The Board would like to thank Christian for his contribution to Computacenter during his tenure and wishes him well for the future.

The Company's Nomination Committee will now undertake a process to find a successor and will make a further announcement once this has been completed.

Remuneration Arrangements:

- Christian will continue to receive his base salary, pension and benefits for his remaining period of employment to 31 December 2024, and will be paid in lieu of notice for the balance of the 12 month notice period.
- He will be eligible to receive an annual bonus in respect of the year ended 31 December 2024. Any bonus award will be subject to the Remuneration Committee's assessment of relevant performance targets and will be payable at the normal time and in the normal manner (including deferral).
- Christian will retain his outstanding deferred bonus and buy-out awards. His 2023 and 2024 PSP awards will lapse on 31 December 2024.

Further detail on Christian's remuneration arrangements will be disclosed in accordance with section 430(2B) of the Companies Act 2006 on Computacenter's website shortly, and in Computacenter's Annual Report on Directors' Remuneration included within its 2024 Annual Report and Accounts.
