New Terms of Trade with Primary Vendor

Computacenter Plc, the European IT infrastructure services provider, announces today that it has substantially concluded annual negotiations with its primary vendor, for the period commencing 30th November 2004 to 31st October 2005. The new terms and conditions of trade between the two companies are likely to reduce Computacenter's profitability in the UK, by approximately #9 million over this time period, although this final outcome will depend upon actual sales volumes achieved.
