ANNOUNCEMENT - BRIAN MCBRIDE

Computacenter is pleased to announce the appointment of Brian McBride, as Senior Independent Director, Chairman of the Remuneration Committee and a Non-Executive Director of the Board of Directors, with immediate effect.

Mr McBride was most recently, Vice President and Managing Director of Amazon.co.uk, where in 5 years at the helm, he presided over very strong growth.

His early career and management development was at IBM, where he started and spent 12 years in sales, culminating in the appointment as Director of UNIX Marketing for IBM Europe. Since then, he has been MD at Crosfield Electronics, President Europe for Madge Networks, Vice President and GM for Dell Northern Europe and CEO of T-Mobile UK.

Mr McBride has had broad non-executive experience, having served as Chairman of the Remuneration Committee and SID of S3 PLC, NED at Celtic Football Club PLC, Chairman of Virgin Mobile, and as a Board member of the British Retail Consortium. In addition, he has served as a trustee of Kind Direct (a Prince's Trust Charity).

The Chairman of Computacenter, Greg Lock, welcomes Mr McBride saying 'We are delighted that Brian has agreed to join our Board. He has relevant experience aplenty and, having known him for 30 years, I commend his independence of spirit and thought to all our shareholders'.
